

S.no.	What are the problems
	Students does not bring work-sheets regularly
	Students are not regular in the class
	Late submission of home-work
	Lack of regular practice which is required for concept building
	Poor time management and inadequate revision
	Hesistate to ask questions because of peer pressure
	Few students were having a habit of not writing in proper accountancy copy.
	Few students do not follow the dead lines for their submissions.
	Lack of reading habit of question

QUAL PEDAGOGICAL PLAN (Class:XII & Subject:Accountancy)Compilation of problems

Accountancy subject demands practice for more conceptual and practical clarity. Irregularity, Casual approach towards studies is the major problem to cope up with the subjects

Students were unable to link understanding and knowlege in application based questions

Basic maths calculation of fractions and lack of connecting the problem to real life application.Difficulty in establishe the correralion of new PFDD and old PDFF with BadDebts.
Confusion in capital adjustments because of lack of practice

Problem in finding of share of profit specially in case of sales basis, overlook time period complexity of treatment of realisation expenses.

Categorisation of Problems (Subjective & Behavioural)
Students does not bring work-sheets regularly
Students are not regular in the class
Late submission of home-work
Students does not bring work-sheets regularly
Students are not regular in the class
Hesistate to ask questions because of peer pressure
Few students were having a habit of not writing in proper accountancy copy.
Few students do not follow the dead lines for their submissions.
Lack of reading habit of question